BARRE, VT., JULY 5, 1904

Weather Predictions.

Boston, July 5.—Showers to night. Wednesday fair and cooler. Fresh to brisk westerly winds.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

Local Happenings Tensely Told For Busy Readers.

By express, more of those 50c silk bows for 25c at Vaughan's.

Dr. George H. Spiller, optician, will be at the City Hotel July 4, 5 and 6.

Old gold and silver wanted at refiners' prices in exchange for goods at F. E. Burr's.

I only paid $0.50 for this nice rug, 6x9, at the auction last week. There is one, and only one, left. Go and see it. City Auction Rooms.

Mr. O.—"Hello, Ballard, I've been reading your advertisements about Investment Insurance Trust Bonds. I had thought I didn't care for any more insurance, but I'm really rather interested now and would like to look it up." Mr. B.—"Here's my own bond, look it through." Ballard & Co., reliable insurance.

THE ROYAL BOX.

The Grand Duchess Olga, the eldest daughter of the czar, rises at 6 every morning, winter and summer, to study, and she is always guarded by a number of detectives.

Eight sumptuous motor cars, decorated in the imperial orange color, have, says the North China Gazette, been presented to the emperor and empress dowager of China by the Viceroy Yuan Shi Kai.

The widow of the late Grand Duke of Mecklenburg-Strelitz is the only surviving sister of the late Duke of Cambridge. She is eighty-two years old and is the last remaining link in the royal family between George IV. and Edward VII.

Grand Duke Vladimir, uncle of the czar and the man who would mount the Russian throne should death overtake Grand Duke Michael, brother of Nicholas, is a magnificent man physically and has held some high commands in the imperial army.

CHURCHMEN.

Rev. W. D. Smith, rector of St. George's parish of Fredericksburg, has been elected archdeacon of the Episcopal diocese of Virginia.

Rev. John Gardner Murray has declined to become bishop of Kentucky and will remain rector of his present congregation in Baltimore.

Rev. Herbert S. Bigelow of Cincinnati, who has been an active worker in politics with Tom Johnson for three years past, states that hereafter he will give his undivided attention to the ministry.

Bishop McQuaid of Rochester, N. Y., has been reappointed park commissioner by Mayor Cutler. The bishop has been a member of the park board since its creation, and he has taken great interest in the development of the city's grand system of parks.

TOWN TOPICS.

Boston newsboys are petitioning for more free public baths.

New York has a German population of 800,000, and Chicago has 440,000.

An eight ton block of granite will be used to mark the site of the first settlement of Derby, Conn., on Academy hill.

Equally divided among the members of the Chicago force the arrests made by the police last year give each patrolman 28.9 prisoners.

The Civic Improvement league of St. Louis has organized a junior school of horticulture that the enthusiasm of the children may be directed into channels that will not only give them pleasure and prevent their getting into mischief, but encourage the sentiment for a more beautiful city.

The Frankfort Pairs.

In the centuries before the nineteenth the nearest approach to an international exhibition appears to have been the Frankfort fairs of the sixteenth century. Henry Estienne, the scholar, describes this institution as "the epitome of all the markets of the world."

EAST BARRE.

Enoch Campbell has gone to Oscar Waterman's to help him with some work there.

Dr. and Mrs. Minard and Mr. and Mrs. Lathrop went to Berlin Pond to remain over the Fourth.

Mrs. Bird and daughter, Ida, of Ayer, Mass., are visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Barker, Sr.

On Saturday Nathan Carter went to his home in East Corinth to bring his sister to remain over the Fourth with him.

Herb Sargent and wife, Lynn Cutler and Nellie Kyle went on a fishing expedition yesterday and had a good time.

Emma Fraser has given up her work at the home of Mrs. Dix. She left today for Lisbon, N. H., to work in a mill there.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church will meet for sewing with Mrs. A. J. Eastman Thursday afternoon.

One of the exciting occurrences of yesterday was the ball game. Jack Plested and George French were the leaders and the team of the latter were the winners.

Mrs. Sullivan left this morning to spend some days with friends in the southern part of Massachusetts. Her mother, Mrs. Morrison is keeping her house during her absence.

Miss Alice Moore, national secretary of the D. W. C. T. U., will give an address in the Congregational church Wednesday at 7.30 p. m. In the afternoon at 3 o'clock she desires to meet the ladies, young people and older members of the L. T. L. It will be interesting, come!

The Children's day service of the Congregational church was held Sunday evening and passed off very well, reflecting much credit on the trainers and the trained. One feature worthy of mention was a trio which was sung. It was composed by Miss Sadie Eastman and the harmony was unusually good. She recently graduated from the seminary at Montpelier and bids fair to be a prominent composer as the days go by.

Populists in Convention.

Springfield, Ill., July 5.—The Populist party has opened its national convention here. There is a movement on foot by one element to hold over until the Democrats have made their nominations at St. Louis. These men favor the endorsement of Hearst, if nominated by the Democrats, but it is believed that the majority will oppose such action. The Populists who want to go it alone figure on making Thomas E. Watson of Georgia the presidential nominee. Watson, however, has not said that he will accept. There is grave doubt whether he will be here for the convention.

Two Dead From Gasoline Explosion.

Washington, July 5.—Annie Talbot, colored, aged forty, and her son James, seven years old, are dead from burns received as the result of a gasoline explosion at the woman's home. Bernard Talbot, another son, twelve years old, also was badly burned.

Barrel Factory Destroyed.

Philadelphia, July 5.—The barrel factory of Christopher Koch, at Swanson and McKean streets, this city, has been destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at $30,000, partially covered by insurance.
